Shauna Stock promoted by State Treasurer Richard Mourdock

INDIANAPOLIS (October 15th, 2007) – Shauna Stock, originally of Frankfort, Indiana, was recently promoted to the position of scheduler within the Treasurer of State's Office. Stock's promotion is immediate and her responsibilities include the handling of all scheduling matters for State Treasurer Richard Mourdock.

Stock received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Health from Indiana State University in 2005. Previously, Stock worked for Indiana Mother's Milk Bank through Clarian Health Systems before coming to the State Treasurer's Office in February 2007 as a staff assistant.

"Shauna's first day in the office was officially my first day on the job. After only six months, I noticed her potential and am glad she accepted the new position," said Richard Mourdock.

Richard E. Mourdock was elected as the 53rd State Treasurer of Indiana in November 2006 and is responsible for the safekeeping and investment of moneys and securities paid into the state treasury.
